IAN FLEMING

FULL STACK WEB DEVELOPER

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Formalprozessabteilung Sachbearbeiter / Legal Assistant

Grünecker Patent- und Rechtsanwälte, Munich: May| 2019-present

- Responsible for all formal processes related to European Community and foreign designs, foreign trademarks: reporting on publication/registration, invoicing, monitoring deferment deadlines, fee payment, ensuring accuracy and attention to detail.
- Fully-digitised the fee payment/deferment schedule, in order to make it legible and understandable, and ensure no deadlines are missed in the event of absence.

Bar manager

The Keg Bar, Munich: March 2015 - March 2017

- Employed an analytical mindset to ensure everything ran smoothly: organised staff and delegated work, meticulously planned drink/food orders depending on demand/upcoming events, created an extensive electronic staff handbook detailing every aspect of the job (from how to pour every drink/cocktail on the menu to how to deal with electrical faults in the building).

Book department worker, duty/weekend manager

The Book Centre, Waterford, Ireland: August 2008 - June 2014

- Ordered books for ca. 8 different sections, ensuring we always had exactly what the customer wanted before they even knew they wanted it.
- Aggregated different rare title websites, so that we could safely say that, no matter how obscure or long out of print a title is, we could generally source it at a reasonable price.

EDUCATION

Career Foundry

Full-Stack Development Certificate, January 2020 - November 2020

- Intensive project-based course building apps using a variety of technologies, under the guidance of industry-leading tutor and mentor.
- Utilised a diverse range of APIs for apps, such as a Meetup events app and a Pokedex clone.
- Coded a fully-functional React Native chat app for Android and IOS.
- Created an entire full-stack movie app with login and user account functionality, using the MERN stack.

University College Limerick, Ireland

MA in Music Technology, 2012-2013

- Graduated with a 1.1
- Wrote a peer-reviewed scientific paper on a piece of music I created and released, based on the voice of author Harlan Ellison ('I Have No Mouth (pts. 1-6) - Introducing Postdigital Spectralism' - Leonardo Music Journal LMJ24 - p.45-48, Dec 2014 - www.mitpressjournals.org/doi/abs/10.1162/LMJ_a_00201)

University College Cork, Ireland

BA in English and Sociology, 2000-2003
